NDNU Human Services Senior Project

“Read It and Keep!” A Book Sale Fundraiser will be held at the Ted Adcock Community Center in Half Moon Bay as a Benefit for Senior Coastsiders. Join in this great community event! You will have your choice of a good selection of books at a price that matches today’s economy. Bring the kids after church! The event will take place on Sunday, March 14th from 11:00 am to 4:00 pm. Paperback books will sell for .50 cents each and hardbound books will be $1.00 each. Additional donations will also be accepted. There will be adult and children’s sections available. All proceeds will go to Senior Coastsiders to be used for Senior Services and programs.

Senior Coastsiders is located at: 535 Kelly Avenue and is a non-profit agency.

Book donations are needed. The books are to be new or used in good condition. Book drop off days at Senior Coastsiders in the Ted Adcock Community Center are Thursday, March 11th from 8:00 am to 8:00pm and Friday, March 12th from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm or you may call: Laura Guluzzy, Book Sale Coordinator, to arrange your donation or for further information at: (650) 242-6000. Senior Coastsiders Executive Director, Cara Schmaljohn can be reached at: (650) 726-9056.

This fundraiser is in conjunction with Notre Dame De Namur University’s Senior Project Program.
